#Pipelines2023

Dear Prospective Exhibitors & Sponsors:

I am pleased to announce that the Pipelines 2023 Conference will be held in San Antonio, Texas, the city that Mark Twain famously rated as one of only four unique cities in the United States (the other three were Boston, New Orleans, and San Francisco). Home of the historic Alamo mission, San Antonio hosts a vibrant mix of culture, cuisine, legendary architecture and moving history.

Based around the theme “Pipeline Engineering – Resiliency in Infrastructure,” the direct involvement of Owners, Consulting Engineers, Contractors, and Suppliers will result in one of the best overall programs to-date on the 40th anniversary of the Pipelines Conference series of ASCE. In addition to the solid technical program which has been characteristic of this conference, this event and the venue will enable you to showcase your services and products to potential new clients as well as to your current customer base.

Since attending my first Pipelines Conference in 2003, and subsequently serving as the Technical Chair of the Pipelines Conference in 2008 in Atlanta, GA, and in 2014 in Portland, OR, it gives me tremendous pride to see how far the Pipelines conference series has come. With the founding of the Utility Engineering & Surveying Institute (UESI) through your active participation and continued generous sponsorships, this conference is amongst one of ASCE’s best annual events not only for the exchange of technical knowledge, but particularly for networking to expand your business.

If you’re looking for a summer get-away place, San Antonio is the perfect vacation spot with charm that is distinct from any other American city with Southwestern architecture and a lush landscape rarely seen in such an arid environment due to the San Antonio River that runs through the downtown area. The city is a melting-pot, a true cultural crossroads, a place where English and Spanish or a mix of both can be heard on the street. Relics of the past have not been razed and covered in concrete. The centerpiece of San Antonio is the Alamo, the old stone mission that is the lodestone of both Texas and American history. It is a very short walk from there to the Riverwalk, or the Paseo del Rio, the twisting tourist district along the banks of the San Antonio River. The Riverwalk stretches about three miles and is punctuated by arched bridges and entrance steps, and is lined with shops, sidewalk cafes, restaurants and hotels.

Over the past decade, more than $1 Billion has been spent on improving San Antonio’s infrastructure. For example, the San Antonio Water Systems, SAWS, has undertaken some of the largest water and wastewater pipeline projects in recent years such as the Water Resource Integration Program (WRIP), consisting of 45 miles of large diameter pipes installed by open-cut as well as trenchless methods such as microtunneling. The Vista Ridge project will deliver 50,000 acre-feet of water per year through 140 miles of large diameter pipes. Major future wastewater pipeline work will exceed $1 billion and will include small, medium and large diameter pipe design and construction as well as numerous trenchless rehabilitation projects.

Come and enjoy San Antonio, Texas’ #1 visited City, and the nation’s 7th largest. Showcase your services and products, network with potential clients and existing customers, and help us continue to grow the pipelines market. If you’d like more information on various opportunities for sponsorship and exhibit spaces, please contact: Shah Rahman, MBA, M.ASCE, Exhibits and Sponsorship Chair, at shah.rahman@kci.com.
